AUSTIN MUSIC AWARDS

For over four decades, the Austin Music Awards have honored the city's live music community each year by recognizing and celebrating the musicians, music creatives, industry masterminds, and entities that have made a significant impact on Austin's local music scene. This yearly celebration includes award presentations, winner and special guest performances, and kicks off the music-filled month of March for Austin.

HAIR OF THE 3-LEGGED DOG DAY PARTY

Originally created for Chronicle readers to skip work and party with locals during SXSW, the Hair of the 3-Legged Dog Day Party has become a decade-long tradition of discovering the best new Austin bands over tacos and Bloody Marys. Named in honor of Hank, the Chronicle's tripaw office mascot, the Hair of the 3-Legged Dog draws over 600 partygoers each year and gives back to local animal rescue Austin Pets Alive! Totally free to attend, it's common to see a line around the block to enter the Day Party (and to catch a glimpse of Hank as he greets his guests).

AUSTIN CHRONICLE ANNUAL HOT SAUCE FESTIVAL

What began as a small hot sauce contest in 1990 has grown into one of Austin's best-known food events, drawing over 10,000 and 350 entries in peak years. Hundreds of hot sauces have been consumed testing the bravest of pepper heads and chili-loving festival goers with beverages on hand to cool off the overheated. In addition to hot sauce, this truly Austin food event features local food truck options, sauces for sale, cookbooks, peppers, and of course live music every year! Past performers at the fest include Joe King Carasco, Dale Watson, Money Chicha, Shinyribs, and many more.

Serving as a major fundraiser for the Central Texas Food Bank, The Austin Chronicle Hot Sauce Festival has raised over 1 million meals! One of the most beloved Austin Chronicle events and a celebration of all things spicy!
